USW, Industry Are Deadlocked On Key Issue

Steel Wants Right To Change Some Work Conditions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal mediators said today management and union officials are in an absolute deadlock on a key issue in the steel strike.

This is the industry's insistence on the right to change working conditions it considers wasteful or inefficient. David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers general president and top negotiator for his side, has served notice that it would be accepted only "over my dead body."

Many observers view it as the major issue in the costly, nationwide strike now in its 114th day. "Both sides have adamantly told us there is no present hope of a compromise on that issue," a spokesman for the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service told a reporter.

Company negotiators have contended that only by gaining more efficiency through changing the work rules can the companies afford to grant any wage increases and other benefits asked by the union without adding to inflation.

But the union contends rules changes would eliminate worker gains made over the years. The union challenges the companies' argument that the rules have resulted in unnecessary work assignments.

Before they struck, steel workers were averaging $3.11 an hour.

The mediator spokesman said the negotiations at this stage are more an effort to clarify various issues than really to bargain. He added that he could not predict when the situation would be resolved.

The negotiations stood in recess at least until Friday as both sides awaited the Supreme Court's decision on whether to sustain a Taft-Hartley law injunction ordering the 500,000 striking steelworkers back to their jobs for 80 days. The court gave no hint as to when it would announce its ruling.

The government obtained the injunction in federal court in Pittsburgh two weeks ago on grounds the strike is menacing the nation's health and safety.

Enforcement of the injunction has been delayed pending outcome of the union's appeal.

Edison Rates Increased At Leetonia

LEETONIA — Electric rates will be increased here next month as the result of adoption by Village Council Wednesday night of an ordinance granting rate changes to the Ohio Edison Co.

The ordinance had received two previous readings and passed last night on a final reading.

The increase will average 8 cents a month for residential users and 6.47 per cent for secondary customers.

The increase will average between 30 and 60 cents a month for residential consumers. Glenn Harding, district manager, and Donald Reinhard of the Ohio Edison Co., were present. Mr. Harding announced that voltage changes will be made at noon Monday, weather permitting. This will cause the power to be off a short time.

An increase of one-half cent per 1,000 cubic feet of gas used was announced by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. The rate change will be effective Dec. 1.

Council approved the transfer of $600 from the general fund to the cemetery fund. The fund has been in the red approximately $450. It is hoped that the transfer of funds will enable the fund to show a black balance at the end of the year.

Clerk M. P. Burick reported receipt of $1,101 in gasoline excise tax, $103 in parking meter revenue, and $199 in fines and licenses.

Mayor Ralph Kennedy presided at the meeting with Councilmen Victor Hedd, Dan Cullinan, Joseph Weikart, Jenkins Nicolette and James Cimini, Street Commissioner Richard Kleinknecht and Solicitor Edward Greenamyer in attendance.

Child Actress Claims Trip Was No Stunt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Evelyn ... or was it Eloise — took off from Hollywood Wednesday and headed for the White House to get Mamie Eisenhower to promote a new television series for her.

Nobdy told her to do it, 9-year-old child actress Evelyn Rudie insisted after making a jet airliner trip across country on her own.

It wasn't a publicity stunt, she claimed, just a way she thought she might get back to working again on TV. Two years ago she portrayed an impish brat named Eloise.

Of course, she didn't make it to the White House, where she had once posed with Mrs. Eisenhower to promote U.S. Savings Bonds.

"When I saw Mrs. Eisenhower in Washington last year, she told me that she and her grandchildren and the President enjoyed my acting so much," Evelyn explained. "So I decided to talk with her and see if she couldn't help me get a part in a film or TV series."

Evelyn apparently bought her ticket with $125 from four piggy banks, called her own cab, and took off.

Personal Taxes Yield $959,590

LISBON A total of $959,590 has been collected from personal taxes for last half of 1959, according to Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer.

A breakdown shows $887,298 collected in general taxes, which includes farm and store inventories and equipment, and $72,292 in classified personal taxes, which includes stocks, bonds and investments.

The total to be collected in East Liverpool was $220,000 ($214,000 has been collected) Salem $350,000 with $338,000 collected, and Lisbon $23,000, with $22,000 paid, Mr. Judge said.

The figures are listed as of Nov. 3 and advance payments up to 60 per cent by law are expected to be completed in November. A 10 per cent penalty is now being added to delinquent payments. The closing date was Oct. 30.

Rocket Might Of U.S. Shown In Last 2 Days

Atlas, Jupiter, Thor Tests Are All Successful

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The big three of U.S. missiles — Atlas, Thor and Jupiter — effectively demonstrated this nation's rocket retaliatory power in the past two days.

All three were launched on long-range test flights during a 20-hour period. Officials reported all successfully dropped simulated warheads on designated ocean targets.

The intermediate range Thor blasted off Tuesday night on a 1,500-mile journey; the Atlas took off on an intercontinental range flight of 4,800 miles Wednesday; and the Jupiter IRBM sped 1,500 miles down the Atlantic missile range Wednesday night.

Successful flights are nothing new to this fiery trio of military blockbusters. They have covered the course many times during lengthy research and development programs here.

The United States has declared all three operational and their current test programs are designed to improve their accuracy and reliability.

Combat-ready Atlases and Thors are poised on launching pads abroad. Jupiters soon will join them to provide America with one of its greatest war deterrents.

A few Atlases are stationed at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. Several more Atlas bases are being constructed through the western United States. The missile has range of 6,300 miles.

Four squadrons of Thors are assigned to NATO troops in England. Three Army Jupiter squadrons are scheduled for early delivery to NATO forces. Two will go to Italy, one to Turkey. Each squadron has 15 of the deadly weapons.

Commissioners Study County Home Defeat

Perplexed over the defeat of the $98,000 bond issue for construction of a new county home, the three county commissioners were meet today to decide what to do next.

Needing 55 per cent approval to pass, the bonds failed to reach a simple majority by more than 3,000 votes in the election Tuesday.

Commissioner R. Max Gard said yesterday the commissioners will have to discuss the problem at today's session. They are "forced to do something" now, Gard said. He blamed a last minute "wave of opposition" for the failure of the issue at the polls.

"It became a partisan issue," the commissioner asserted.

He said the county's legislative body would have "somebody design a new sanitary system." The reservoir at the top of the hill overlooking the home will have to be covered and the plumbing system will have to be revamped, he added.

The plumbing system has been condemned since the first of the year by the state building inspector's office and the state and county sanitarians have protested the present sewage condition and the drinking water supply's possible pollution.

Gard also added that the state fire marshal's office may also force the county to place a sprinkler system in the buildings to guard against fires. Fire protection at the home now is inadequate, the commissioner said.

Ohio Representative Hits Rigged Shows

Devine Says Obnoxious TV Commercials Next In Line

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some recommendations quickly. "Generally, I'm in favor of keeping government out of things wherever possible," he said. "But if the industry won't do something, maybe the government will be forced to act."

A freshman congressman from Columbus, Devine has had a lot of tie to consider these matters. He is the only Ohio member of the subcommittee that has been investigating the quiz shows.

"If this is all wrong—and I certainly think it is—then there's a need that either the government or the industry itself do something about it," Devine told a reporter.

"The American public has been hoodwinked."

Just what can be done—and by whom—is something Devine has not decided. He thinks the subcommittee staff should draw up some recommendations quickly. "Generally, I'm in favor of keeping government out of things wherever possible," he said. "But if the industry won't do something, maybe the government will be forced to act."

Aside from TV quiz show fakery, Devine also gets fed up with certain types of commercials — like the hammers banking away inside somebody's head and the rest, he said.

He thinks a lot of commercials are either in bad taste or dishonest, or both. He says some sort of regulation, inside or outside the industry, is in order there, too.

Devine, incidentally, believes Charles Van Doren's appearance as a witness was a waste of government money and time.

"The committee did, in fact, determine that certain TV quiz shows were fixed or rigged," Devine

COUNTY CHOW — Martha Ann DeBorger, 35, of San Francisco insists she may be eating "county chow" for a long time. Air Force Maj. Arthur DeBorger, 33, divorced her recently but she refused to reveal where she had hidden his $20,000 life insurance policy. A judge put her in jail to refresh her memory.

said. "The only reason we called Van Doren was to satisfy the public curiosity—not to serve a legislative purpose."

"Also, I think he should not have been called in the interest of economy in government. After all, he was just another contestant."

CONDITION "CRITICAL"

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Grace Shoup, 37, of Dayton, Ohio, remained in critical condition Wednesday at Brooke Army Hospital. She was burned Monday when a jet plane crashed into her Dayton home, killing both her children. The Air force brought her here for treatment.

ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL

CINCINNATI (AP) — An automobile struck and killed Virgil Davis, 66, here Wednesday night. Police said driver Lee Eberle, Jr., 31, of Bethel, told them he did not see Davis but felt his car hit something. He stopped, called police, and was not cited.

Wooster Man New Head of Public Works

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has appointed Theodore J. Kauer, 54, of Wooster, as state director of public works.

Kauer, a former state highway director, will take office Jan. 1, 1960, succeeding Richard Larimer. The appointment was announced Wednesday.

The public works director's term is limited by law to one year. Kauer will receive $14,000 annually. Larimer, who received $10,000, was a holdover from the administration of Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Kauer was highway director from 1949 to 1952 and chief engineer of the Ohio Turnpike Commission until 1955. He is an executive in a Wooster contracting firm.

Air Traffic Building Is Dedicated

BERKELIN, Ohio (AP) — The building which will house the Northern Ohio Air Route Traffic Control Center was dedicated Wednesday.

It is a two-story glass, brick and metal building with 54,000 square feet of floor space on a 10-acre tract on East Lorain St. Construction started last spring.

When two million dollars worth of electronic equipment has been installed, the center will start functioning. Total cost will be four million dollars.

The center replaces one at Cleveland Municipal Airport. Mainly as a Civil Defense measure, the new building was located here, away from Cleveland industrial targets.

The Northern Ohio center controls all air traffic in an area from Rochester, N.Y., to Fort Wayne, Ind. Radio and radar are used to keep track of all aircraft aloft, and to space them sufficiently to prevent accidents. The system is part of the Federal Aviation Agency.

Aged Won't Receive Food This Month

LISBON — Robert Bycroft, county welfare director and head of the county surplus foods program, said today that no surplus foods for the aid-for-aged will be given out this month as previously reported.

The aged received two months supply in October and will not receive more surplus food till December. This was done to keep traveling to a minimum for the older people, Bycroft explained.

4 New Members Elected to State Education Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Board of Education has four new members following Tuesday's election.

Voters also re-elected five members to the board. Of the nine successful candidates, only two had opposition.

The newcomers are Ralph S. Regula of Canton, in the 16th Congressional District; William T. Monroe, Cuyahoga County, 22nd District; John J. Gallagher, Cuyahoga County, 20th District; and Miss Josephine Walker, Cuyahoga County, 21st District.

Miss Walker takes the unexpired term of Charles P. Lucas who resigned more than a year ago to accept a municipal post in Cleveland.

The five members returned are Walter J. Beckford of Cincinnati in the First District; Ruth D. Mayne of Dayton, Third District; Cecil M. Sims of Piqua, Fourth District; Edward G. Ames of Toledo, Ninth, and Francis W. Spicer of Akron, 14th.

The terms begin next Jan. 1.

Columbus Attorney Seeks Court Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A Columbus attorney, Willard D. Campbell, announced Wednesday he will seek the unexpired term of the late Ohio Supreme Court Justice James Garfield Stewart.

Campbell was a Republican nominee for the court in both the 1956 and 1958 campaigns but lost to incumbents Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt and Judge Charles B. Zimmerman.

Judge John Weld Peck, Cincinnati Democrat, succeeded Stewart on the court, under appointment of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Judge Kingsley A. Taft, meanwhile, has requested petitions to qualify him for re-election to a third six-year term on the Supreme Court.

The term of Judge James F. Bell, London Democrat, expires Jan. 1, 1961, but he has not announced any plans to seek re-election.

BEATING REPORTED

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Ray Pratt, business agent for Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers Local 16, told police three men beat him and his wife Wednesday night in an apparent robbery attempt. He said both he and his wife were slugged on the head after he invited the trio into an office at his residence when they told him they wanted to discuss union business. Pratt said he fired six shot at the men when they ran away without getting any money.

LEGIONNAIRE DIES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's only honorary commander of the state American Legion, John J. (Jake) Saslavsky, 83, died here Wednesday at his home. A native of Cincinnati, he was adjutant emeritus of the Legion in Ohio. Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Schoedinger Funeral Home here.

KILLED BY CAR

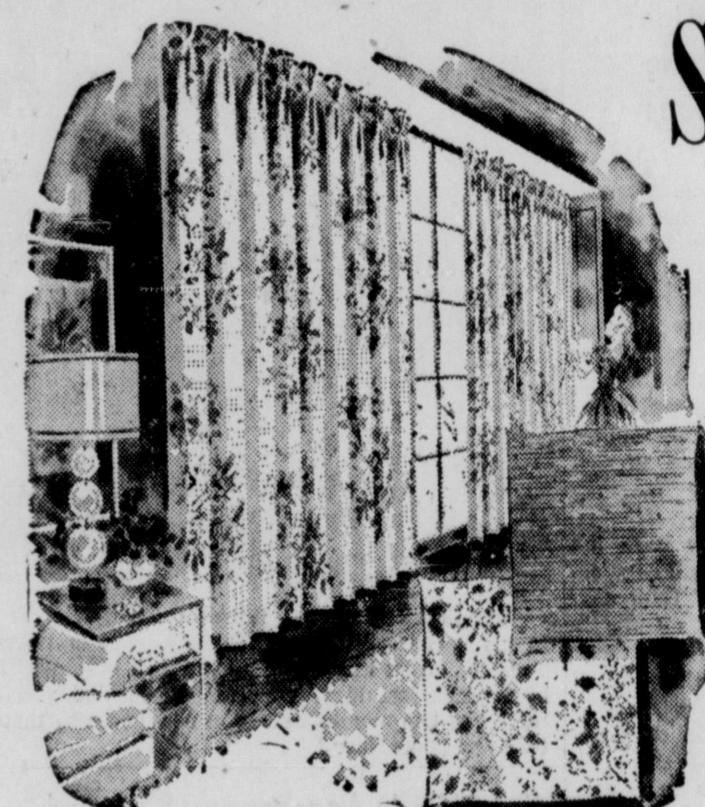

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — William Moore, 21, of Pikeville, Ky., was fatally injured near here Wednesday night when struck by a car. Sheriff deputies said Moore apparently was walking along Ohio 56 when hit. Moore was visiting a sister, Mrs. Rose Trailer, Rt. 6, London.

No Place for Secrecy

When any police report is not made available for public inspection, particularly upon request, the natural question is "Why?"

Reporters were not told of a safe burglary at a local tavern Monday but the news leaked out nevertheless. On Wednesday, despite repeated requests for information, the case was still shrouded in secrecy. No policeman would talk about the case.

The question still remains, "Why?" Since when does a burglary or any other police report, for that matter, have to be hidden from the public? Secrecy has no place in the police department, fire department, City Council or any other municipal department. The public has a right to know what their appointive or elective officers are doing.

Suppression of information only causes the public's collective eyebrows to arch quickly.

Let's hope the recent incident is the exception, rather than the rule.

The Evidence To the Contrary

The issues in the steel strike are not theoretical. They are as real as steel. But to understand what is at stake in the refusal of United Steelworkers to consider management's plan for modernizing work rules it is useful to know how the same issue was handled by United Mine Workers.

John L. Lewis, UMW president, began to discount the effect of mechanization and automation years ago. Instead of standing pat and telling mine operators, in effect, that he had no interest in their costs, only in the job security of members of his union, he told the operators his union would help them step up efficiency.

Today, Mr. Lewis boasts that this cooperation has made the American miner the highest-paid artisan in the world and U.S. coal mines the most efficient on earth.

He can point out, moreover, that this has been done without increasing the cost of coal unduly; that it is the one commodity which has not been affected by inflation.

Moreover, he can claim that in the long pull efficiency will keep coal from being hurt unduly by oil and gas. This is in contrast with the hue and cry raised years ago when Mr. Lewis was being pointed out as an economic ogre who was raising the wages of coal miners at the expense of the coal industry's prospects of survival.

What he saw then that still is not visible to operators of marginal mines and miners displaced by machinery is that the survival of the industry as a whole was more important than survival of coal mining's inefficiencies. They had impoverished it in the Old World, and they could do the same thing to coal mining in the new world.

He was interested in the survival of the industry, not the survival of all the people who happened to be identified with it. His problem in this respect is not solved yet; currently there are operators and miners defying UMW demands that would have the effect of sidelining the marginal operations they are struggling to maintain. But the pattern of solution has been established, as far as the United Mine Workers is concerned.

The pattern is to cooperate with management for the preservation of the coal industry in the face of competition. Mr. Lewis, who invented many of the techniques of industrial unionism in the United States, believes in cooperating with management to increase efficiency in every possible way.

He wants to take all the advantage he can of the machinery that has multiplied human productivity beyond the wildest dreams of the pioneers in the industrial revolution.

Wisdom Takes a Little Longer

That recent Columbus, O., accident in which three innocent children were killed by the antics of a driver in a stolen car had footnotes that told more about the incident than the main account.

The driver was being chased by a police cruiser. The law's "hot pursuit" caused him to be driving at speeds estimated up to 100 mph in his attempt to get away.

It was in this state of reckless desperation that he drove the vehicle into a group of school children. He was bound over to the Franklin County Grand Jury under $100,000 bond—three counts of second-degree manslaughter at $30,000 apiece and one count of second-degree auto theft at $10,000. His plea is "Not guilty."

So much for one footnote. A second one also is thought-provoking. The driver was on probation for two felonies when arrested. He was under psychiatric care. His record shows previous arrests on charges of burglary, theft and morals.

If the policemen chasing him had known about this, they might have had the wisdom to avoid doing the one thing certain to drive him into panic. They were not dealing with a well balanced personality who could be counted on to react rationally. They rarely are when they become involved in one of their "hot-pursuit" chases. Rational drivers with nothing to fear do not run away; they stop.

Add to the hazards of the highway the possibility you may be killed some day because you had the bad luck to get in the way of a police chase. It's one of the hazards of the automobile age. Panicky drivers try to get away, and the police chase them. It's like chasing a bull in a china shop, only deadlier.

Court Precedents

High Court Expected to Uphold T-H Ru'ing

The Supreme Court of the United States will uphold the order of the lower court requiring the striking steel workers to go back to work—if precedents and court decisions of the past are respected.

There would be a greater calamity for the labor unions of the injunctive power were held not to be within the power of Congress to confer upon the federal courts. It would mean that all the orders issued for the last 20 years by courts as a consequence of decisions by the National Labor Relations Board, requiring employers to "reinstate" discharged employees, now would be of doubtful validity.

On the surface, it might appear that no law of Congress could compel any man to go to work against his will or an employer to rehire a dismissed employee.

When an order to terminate a strike for 80 days, as provided in the Taft-Hartley law, is issued by a court, it doesn't compel any individual to go back to work. It applies rather to the power of a union to keep members from returning to their jobs.

The court order is directed to the union or members acting in concert rather than to the choice by an individual worker. Similarly, an employer can fire a worker for inefficiency but not just because he is a member of a union.

THE THEORY that has governed congressional power with respect to labor-management relations is that each individual has a right to work or not to work but that no organization—either a labor union or an employer group—can exercise arbitrary power over individuals without being subject to federal law when interstate commerce is involved.

This principle is derived from the so-called "commerce clause" of the Constitution, which says that Congress has the power to regulate interstate commerce. All the laws relating to monopolies, to trusts and combinations of any kind are based on that part of the Constitution.

Union labor, of course, doesn't come under any antitrust laws today but there is no doubt that Congress has the constitutional power to enact such laws whenever it pleases.

It was when Congress passed the Rail Labor Act in 1926 that the first step was taken to require the recognition of unions by the railroads whenever a majority of the employees vote to do their bargaining through unions.

Later on, in 1935, Congress passed the Wagner Act, which gave legal recognition to the principle of compulsory collective bargaining in all industries engaged in interstate commerce. The Taft-Hartley Act of 1947 reaffirmed this requirement.

There have been many cases before the Supreme Court of the United States contesting the validity of orders issued by the National Labor Relations Board but the power of Congress to write laws governing labor-management relations has been consistently upheld.

Indeed, there have been a number of cases in which the right of Congress to pass laws authorizing injunctions and back-to-work orders has gone to the Supreme Court to be construed.

AT ONE TIME the coal miners union fought a legal battle against such a court order even though the law provided for government seizure of the mines.

The labor leaders contested the back-to-work order but the Supreme Court upheld the injunction as well as the power of Congress to write laws providing for such injunctions.

The theory back of all these laws is that the union is a group of individuals who collectively exercise or attempt to exercise rights over other individuals and that failure by a union to obey a court injunction constitutes a conspiracy to violate the law.

To topple over now the right of Congress to authorize the courts to issue injunctions against any strike that occurs during a national emergency is to imperil the whole legal structure on which labor's rights of collective bargaining have been built up.

It is true that the lawyers for the Steelworkers Union have conceded that, when a "real emergency" arises, the executive and not the courts must prove that such an emergency has occurred.

On this point, however, the Supreme Court can hardly substitute its own judgment in the current steel strike for the facts as proclaimed by the President of the United States.

BASED, THEREFORE, on previous cases and precedents, it would appear that the union leaders have wasted a precious period of more than two weeks by their legal battle questioning the constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley Act's provisions dealing with a national emergency.

The workers might already have been receiving wages so sorely needed by their families. Not only have many millions of dollars of income been taken from the workers but millions of tons of steel production have been taken from the American people, including workers in industries other than steel.

Listening Post

By TRUMAN TWILL

We were gassing away one day—a friend and I—about jobs that would bring out our highest aptitudes.

Both of us were fed up with trying to make sense of jobs we felt we were doing the hard way, due to our shortcomings.

Newspapering in general, we agreed, was no place for people who did not thrive on confusion, and we in particular had no belli for either confusion or deadlines.

The way it turned out, my friend never had a chance to tell what he thought would be his best occupational pitch, because I spoke first.

I wanted to be a professional listener.

It would be my responsibility to give a sympathetic and intelligent hearing to people with something to say. Their number is legion in the newspaper business. Some are outsiders; some are insiders.

All they ask is the privilege of being heard. Sometimes they put it down on paper, but mostly they speak their piece in person.

Someone has to listen. So why not make a specialty of it? That's my question.

My claim to the job would rest on a demonstrated fact, known to all my working associates—that I am a tireless listener who also is good at making responses.

But my friend let out a coarse laugh and said it would be a long, cold winter if our employer acted on my suggestion for creating a job that would amount to collecting money for doing nothing.

Before I could say that I would prepare summaries of conversations and separate grain from chaff, there was a deadline to be met. Both of us had to get back to work in time to quit. Our conversation never was finished.

But now there has come to hand a report from Indio, Calif., about Mrs. Peggy Scott, who gets paid for listening to other people.

Mrs. Scott calls herself a "professional listener." She makes no pretense to being anything else; she doesn't offer advice. She just listens.

She realizes that part of the appeal of psychiatry in these confused times is the patient's privilege of spilling what's on his mind. Mrs. Scott gives her "patients" three one-hour sessions, if they need that many. If they haven't talked it out of themselves by that

"Your burdens are more than any human being should be called upon to endure."

"The recital of your afflictions is breaking my heart."

"I simply can't take it."

"I extend to you my deepest sympathy and now—"

"Get the hell back to work."

I'd just change the last line. It would read: "You now owe me $10 for my time."

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

An incident like being reminded that a brass bed in good condition and of good quality now is an item of lively interest at a sale can be shrugged off.

Or it can be shrugged on. It all depends on how you feel about brass beds.

You may be old, for one thing, that you are like old-timers who cannot understand the values of antiques that were commonplace items of equipment when they were young. There are people who cannot thrill to the possibility of riding again in some of the drafty, jouncy old automobiles now being revived as ambulant museum pieces.

Or you may be so young you do not know what other people are talking about when they enumerate the desirabilities of a thing like a brass bed. A brass bed...

Those of us of in-between years remember them clearly and fondly. They sparkled in the moonlight. They glittered in sunlight. They were cold to the touch when the occupant had a fever.

Matter of Fact

"It's a swell break we GIs didn't know nuttin' about them British generals in the second World War. WE would of never made it if we had of known so many of 'em was up to their ears in pen and ink, throwing their last ounce of autobiographical notes into the death struggle," said Pvt. Oscar Purkey today.

"I never heard of Sir Alanbrooke before but it seems he was with Monty, jumping into the heat of every hot battle with notes for his diary telling what bums Ike, Winnie, Marshall and others was. That pair was sure-fire winners of a world war, give or take 15 years after the whole thing is over."

"This Alanbrooke party joins the 'I don't Like Ike Club' with a claim that Eisenhower played golf in the tough and critical hours. All I can say is that Ike still holds the record for the longest drive, from England all across Europe."

"He topped it with good approach shots to Berlin and is the only golfer or general in history who said, 'Take out the pin' and then sunk the golf ball, Der Fuehrer and the enemy government."

"His only mistake was he let another player, Joe Stalin of the Moscow Country Club, step in and take the ball, the whole 18th green and the scorecard."

"It ain't no pretty picture Alanbrooke paints of himself taking pokes at Ike behind his back and playing knock-knock with Montgomery as the Napoleon of the Pen & Ink

Hussars, always throwing in the full support of the notebook, fountain pen and bookbinding trades whenever the Free World was in tough spots.

"Now I know why I seen so many British trucks on the roads. They was rushing fresh supplies of writing materials to AA Alanbrooke and Monty."

The report prepared by Price Waterhouse, a management advisory service, makes these chief points:

The electrical data processing system requires a large and relatively constant flow of incoming data.

A fairly large clerical force must check the validity and accuracy of source documents and convert data into forms the machine can use. The dream of an automatic office with few clerks seems far off.

THE MEMBERS of an adult education class on Long Island are being given instructions by a hypnotist to teach them how they can put themselves to sleep "for greater physical and mental well being" in the classroom. Up to now who's had any trouble sleeping in school? "How are you doing in school, sonny?" "Okay, I got honors in snoring."

Hollywood is in a row over a refusal of credit to Christopher Fry after months of work on "Ben-Hur," sole credit being given on the screen to Karl Tunberg. Why not put 'em both in chariots and let 'em race to a decision?

GOP Sees Little Hope of Retaining Control In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The given his party in 1958 and demonstrated the "vigorous good health of the Democratic party as it prepares the momentous campaign of 1960."

Although the scattered elections offered little advance light on next year's contest for the presidency, with some exceptions they seemed to reconfirm today a situation disappointing to the GOP:

The Republicans still are hurting politically in the cities. Their own strategists had said an urban revolt fed the Democratic congressional landslide in 1958.

Officially, leaders of both parties claimed the results augured well for their side.

Democratic Chairman Paul M. Butler said the elections reaffirmed what he called a mandate

"All in all I think the Republicans have every reason to look confidently toward 1960."

But Tuesday's returns indicated the Republicans were staging a noteworthy comeback only in upstate New York cities. There Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller took a personal hand in successful campaign to return Auburn to GOP control.

Tregoff Trial Set To Start December 1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Carole Tregoff must stand trial Dec. 1 with her lover on charges of murdering his wife.

The date was set Wednesday after the 22-year-old ex-model tearfully pleaded innocent in the July 18 shooting of Barbara Finch, 33.

Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 41, already has pleaded innocent to a grand jury indictment in the death of his wife.

"In my own state of Kentucky an expected Democratic split did not materialize and the Democrats won the election according to form."

GOP Gains Control In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — Election of four incumbents plus one newcomer will give Republicans control of Cincinnati's nine-member City Council for the next two years.

The Republicans will have a 5-2 majority in the council on the basis of almost complete returns from Tuesday's election. Thus, they will be able to re-elect Councilman Donald Clancy as mayor.

Under Cincinnati's charter form of government, the council elects the mayor from within its own membership.

The three-way split in council membership came about when the Democrats entered their own slate of candidates in this year's election for the first time in more than 30 years. Heretofore they had pooled their strength with dissident Republicans in the Charter Party.

As the new council stacks up, there will be five Republicans, two Democrats and two Charterites. However, the two Democrats — Vincent Beckman and John J. Gilligan — were elected two years ago as members of the Charter Party. They switched to their own Democratic slate when the Democratic organization decided to enter its own candidates.

The announcement of the final count for the city's 724 precincts was held up early today when two of three tabulating machines showed 725 precincts.

Election officials had to go back through the figures to find where the error had been made.

Eight of the nine elected are incumbents. In addition to Beckman and Gilligan, they are Republicans Clancy, Walton H. Bachrach, Joseph DeCourcey and Gordon Rich and Charterites Charles P. Taft and Mrs. Dorothy Dolby.

Only newcomer will be Eugene P. Ruehlmann, a Republican, who will take the seat left vacant when William Cody Kelly decided against seeking re-election.

On the basis of a tabulation of votes from 600 precincts, Clancy was the leading votegetter.

North India May Be On Ike's Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower may tour part of northern India during his overseas goodwill trip next month.

Authoritative informants said the President wants to see more of India than just the capital of New Delhi during his visit. A final decision will depend, they said, on whether he will have time for side trips.

India is one of the nine nations Eisenhower will visit on his goodwill tour beginning Dec. 3.

Eisenhower reported Wednesday he will visit Italy, Greece, Turkey, Iran, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Morocco and France, as well as India, during his flying tour.

Some authorities said a second Eisenhower overseas trip sometime next spring might be in the works. The President is due to visit the Soviet Union at that time, repaying a visit Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made to the United States last month.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is reported to be encouraging Eisenhower to travel as widely as possible during the remaining 14 months he has in office.

Herter is reported to believe that Eisenhower's world-wide reputation as a peaceful man is America's greatest international asset at the present time.

3 Gas Rate Hike Requests Tabled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three gas rate hike proposals were tabled Wednesday by the Power Commission. The increases, now slated to begin April 5, would affect some 100 wholesale customers in Ohio and 12 other states.

The Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., Houston, wants to hike its annual natural gas rate by 10 per cent, of $26,590,100. A hearing was ordered for Dec. 15.

Two southern pipeline firms which purchase gas from the Houston company are asking hikes of 6.7 and 14.8 per cent, or $866,200 and $15,900, annually.

The Houston firm has two other proposals pending for increases totaling $43,261,000 annually, which it is collecting subject to refund. The latest increases were asked on grounds of higher gas, capital and personnel costs and taxes.

6 Columbus Policemen Plead Guilty

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Six Columbus policemen pleaded innocent Wednesday to various theft charges.

They are among nine officers nabbed here in a looting ring probe. Three other policemen had hearings earlier in the week.

All nine have been granted continuances. Wednesday's six cases will come before the court Nov. 13.

Pleading innocent were:

Sgt. James S. Faris, 47, and Patrolman Charles Haapala, 29, and Lawrence J. McNulty, 29, all charged with burglary and grand larceny. Patrolmen Robert Horch, 29, and Raymond E. McKnight, 34, petit larceny. Patrolmen Richard O. Headlee, 33, and McKnight, receiving and concealing stolen property.

Much of the allegedly stolen property, which includes television sets, garden tools and sundry items, is stored at police headquarters as evidence.

Beta Psi Honors 2 New Rushees

Mrs. John Melitshka and Mrs. Clifford Swartz, new rushees, were honored at a tea Sunday at the Ruth Smucker House given by Beta Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

Mrs. Kenneth Lodge, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Raymond Sturgeon of Youngstown, guest speaker. Mrs. Sturgeon, with the assistance of her daughters, Carol, Susan and Mary Celeste, gave a gift wrapping demonstration.

The uses of ribbons, colorful papers and various shaped boxes in wrapping seasonal and everyday gifts were taught to the members who then created wrappings of their own designs.

Following the demonstration and workshop, the members and guests participated in a social hour. The tea table was laid with an ivory colored cloth. Silver appointments and lighted white tapers added to the attractive table setting. The centerpiece featured yellow roses, the sorority's flower, combined with ferns in a black bowl, carrying out the colors of the sorority, black and yellow.

Mrs. Carl McConnors and Mrs. Lodge presided at the tea and coffee services. The party was arranged by Mrs. Norman Gildorf and her social committee.

A formal banquet and ritual ceremony will be held Nov. 18 in the Timblerlans.

The chapter will hold a closed meeting Nov. 12 in the Ruth Smucker House.

Deerfield

The Sirenettes met recently at the fire station with 13 members present. It was decided to have a Christmas gift exchange for the Dec. 7 meeting which will be held in the home of Mrs. Lucille Ernest. A prize was won by Genell Johnson. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Adele Wade and Mrs. Mary Jane Sutcliffe.

Mrs. Mary Flory is a patient in St. Joseph Hospital at Warren where she underwent surgery.

The T. T. Sunday School class of the Methodist Church will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Marie Jenkins.

The topic chosen by Rev. Don Silliman for his 11 a.m. service Sunday at the Methodist Church is "It's The Way I Feel."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zellers of Paris, O., were recent callers in the Cecil Johnston home.

'BARE ROAD' POLICY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A policy of "bare roads"—keeping ice and snow off Ohio highways—is proposed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. In a letter Wednesday, DiSalle asked Highway Director E. S. Preston for a report on what steps will be taken this winter to clear Ohio highways.

Trucker Is Hurt

As Vehicle Overturns

A 30-year-old Akron truck driver was injured slightly Wednesday when he lost control of his vehicle, after braking it suddenly to avoid hitting a car, and it slid off the road and rolled over. Sustaining contusions of the scalp and chest was Robert Lough.

The accident occurred on Rt. 7, about a mile south of North Lima, at 6 p.m. last night as the driver was heading south, Canfield post highway patrolmen said.

A Youngstown motorist severely injured Tuesday afternoon in a one-car accident on Rt. 14, just north of its intersection with Rt. 165, is still in serious condition today at Youngstown South Side Hospital.

Paul M. Santiago, 33, had suffered a possible brain injury, a fractured leg and multiple cuts and bruises when he lost control of his panel truck on a slippery road and struck a tree.

He was first brought to Salem City Hospital and then transferred to South Side.

Route 164 Project Near Lisbon Finished

LISBON — The straightening of Route 164 south of Lisbon and the widening of the road has been completed, according to George Gonzales, state highway resident engineer.

The $475,000 project was completed the last week in October by the Reardon Brothers Contractors of Akron.

OBITUARIES SCHEDULED

EAST PALESTINE — Five high school girls will compete in the annual Prince of Peace contest to be held here Sunday at 8 p.m. in the United Presbyterian Church.

Contestants who will speak are Judy Black, Carolyn Dey, Mary Lou Landsberger, Kathy Morey and Susan Springer.

Confirmation Held At Lisbon

LISBON — Approximately 150 children, high school students, and adults, were administered the sacrament of confirmation Wednesday evening at the St. George Church by the Most Rev. Emmet M. Walsh, bishop of the Youngstown Catholic diocese.

He was assisted by the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Dierker of Randolph, former pastor here, and Rev. Fr. Joseph Heid of East Palestine.

Some 13 other priests of the diocese assisted in the ceremony, and a guard of honor of the fourth degree Knights of Columbus, Cardinal Mercier Assembly of East Liverpool, accompanied Bishop Walsh.

The high school choir under the direction of Miss Betty McKenna sang "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" and the "Confirm Hoc, Deus." Miss Jo Ann Klug was the organist for the occasion.

Those now working under 60-day extensions of their contracts locally are Youngstown Kitchen Division of American Standard Corp., United Tool & Die Co. and the Eljer Co.

USW members at these plants are expecting to get basically the same wage and benefit package as granted by the major steel companies to their employees.

However, it may be some time before contract settlements are reached by Big Steel. Companies and unions will negotiate during the first 70 days of the injunction and then the membership will vote by secret ballot on the last company offer.

The injunction will run for 90 days if the Supreme Court allows it go into effect. It can not be reimposed if the union goes out on strike again.

In announcing that Kintner and Stanton have been called to testify, Harris said the subcommittee felt it necessary "to go to the top echelon to get the whole picture" of the quiz scandals.

CBS, following the subcommittee's initial round of hearings last month, banned all big money quiz and give-away shows and outlawed what it termed other deceiptive program practices.

NBC refused to go along in scrapping all quiz programs but pledged that it has taken steps to prevent fraud.

The testimony of the two network chiefs was expected to wind up the current phase of the congressional probe.

Harris said he planned to end the hearings, now in their fourth day, sometime today. However, he and other subcommittee members have indicated the inquiry may be extended to take in other network program practices they regard as questionable.

East Liverpool Man Is Committed to Lima

LISBON — Joseph Wolfe, 31, of W. 7th St., East Liverpool, who pleaded guilty to possession of instruments for administering drugs and requested court probation was taken to the Lima State Hospital Wednesday by sheriff's deputies for observation and report before being sentenced.

Deputies returned Fred Barth, 40, of 229½ W. 6th St., East Liverpool, and Forrest E. Rice, 59, of Columbiana Rd 2, who had gone to Lima for observation and report after they pleaded guilty to a charge of sodomy.

JAYCEES TO HEAR TALK

Robert Conroy, assistant circulation manager of the Salem News, will speak on "Your Son, a Business Man" at the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 tonight at the Saxon Club.

Wayne T. Darling is program chairman for the gathering.

Police Probe Theft Of Safe from Tavern

Police are questioning suspects in the early Monday morning safe theft at the Pershing Grill at 424 E. Pershing St. The safe was located near Lisbon Tuesday.

Approximately $400 was taken from the 500-pound safe which had apparently been driven away from the scene of the breaking and entering between 1 and 10:30 a.m. Monday.

Entrance to the bar had been made by breaking the glass in a rear door and then slipping the night latch.

The burglars were apparently thirsty after moving the heavy safe. They also helped themselves to a case of highball mix, a case of wine, and a case of beer.

Report of the loss was made by Katherine Makra of 367 Hawley Ave., who discovered the entry on Monday morning.

Marton to Talk At Lisbon Legion Event

LISBON — Charles Marton of Silver Springs, Md., former Columbiana County service officer, will be the guest speaker at the Veterans Day banquet Saturday evening in the American Legion Home.

The annual event will begin at 6:30 with a dinner prepared by Clyde Wilson and Walter Allison, with Tom Fife and Dale Mason in charge of the dining room.

Mr. Marton at one time was department service officer in Cleveland for the American Legion and later served in Washington, D.C., in the national rehabilitation office of the Legion until his recent retirement. He married the former Helen Richardson of Lisbon.

Mrs. Virginia Mast, post and county service officer, obtained the former Lisbon resident as this year's guest speaker.

BUS TO GAME FILLED

The bus chartered by Salem football fans for the game in East Liverpool Friday will leave at 6:15 p.m. from the Junior Democratic Club, 333 S. Ellsworth Ave. Leo Copacia reports the bus has been filled.

Approximately 200 members of the Columbiana County Education Association will attend their fall banquet Tuesday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Winona Methodist Church.

State Senator Oliver Ocasio of Northfield, principal of Tallmadge High School, will be the guest speaker.

Ralph Meyers of Fairfield-Waterford School, president of the CCEA, will preside.

Christmas-At-Home

Event Attracts 400

LISBON — Over 400 persons attended the first session last evening of the 11th annual Christmas-At-Home Tea at the Methodist Church, according to Miss Julia Shank, county extension agent in home economics.

The second session will continue today until 9 p.m.

The tea features exhibits and demonstrations and is sponsored by the Columbiana County Home Demonstration Council.

Driver Cited After W. State St. Mishap

James Lee Hossler, 20, of Canton was cited for reckless operation Wednesday morning following a two-car accident near the intersection of Jennings Ave. and W. State St., police reported today.

Involved in the 8:15 a.m. mishap were William Andrew Schuler, 52, of 394 W. Pershing St. and Hossler. Schuler apparently went wide to make a right turn and was hit by Hossler who apparently tried to pass on the inside. Both were driving east on W. State St.

The Ways of Cats

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One life-time isn't long enough to get used to the ways of a cat.

It probably takes 18 lives—nine of yours and nine of the cat's. My leading hobby right now is trying to get accustomed to the strange antics of a cat. As one who spent most of his years believing a dog was man's best buddy beyond himself, it was something of an ordeal of adjustment when a cat first came into my world to stay.

Where I live the landlord doesn't mix dogs and kids, and if your kid wants a pet you have to choose between cats and parakeets. So our daughter said a cat had to be, and this bundle of fur called Lady Dottie entered our lives more than a year ago.

Since then I have had to change every idea I ever had about cats.

For example, I thought cats were ungrateful and selfish. I thought cats were silent and sure-footed and moved about with the disembodied grace of a ghost.

Well, maybe some cats are all of these things, but not our cat, not our dear Lady Dottie, who is becoming better known in our household as "Ole Clobberfoot" or "Miss Hoofbeats."

Lady Dottie's ancestry stretches in an unbroken line from Ancient Egypt to a nearby alley.

This cat is the pampered darling of six children on our apart-

Columbiana Council Hears Fund Reports

COLUMBIANA — Cash receipts in the mayor's office during October were $795.01, Mayor E. L. Calvin told Village Council at its brief meeting Tuesday night. Of that total, $706.48 was paid into the village treasury from the following sources:

Building inspection fees, $325.16; 20 building permits at $2.50 each, $50; mayor's court fines, fees and forfeitures in local cases, $119.00; town's 55 per cent share of fines and forfeitures in State Patrol cases entered in the local court, $89.87; all costs in State Patrol and state code cases, $99.40; ticket book fines and 5-cent parking meter fines, $21.25; copy of accident report, $1.

Treasurer Adin Kauffman sent $73.53 to the state as its 45 per cent share of the State Patrol fines and forfeitures, and forwarded $15 to the county treasurer as the fine in a state code case. The month showed 16 State Patrol cases on the mayor's court docket, four entered by village police, and five under state code provisions.

COUNCIL ADOPTED an ordinance levying a special assessment for the improvement of Quincy Ave. Property owners may pay the cost — $2.23 per front foot — within 30 days, or have their balance added to their tax duplicate and collected with other taxes.

Program Is Held By Butler Grange

The regular meeting of Butler Grange was held Wednesday evening, with Lee Whinery presiding. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mercer and Mrs. Raymond Raber were appointed to make plans for square dances.

Donations were given to the Christmas seal fund and CROP.

Miss Mary Bloor, lecturer, presented the following program: Duet, "Church in the Wildwood" by Mrs. Raber and Miss Carol Elder; Ten Commandments of Safety, Mr. Whinery; jokes, Mrs. Oliver Conser; riddles, Miss Bloor; poem, "Autumn Fancies," Mrs. Robert Bloor; and Teen Commandments, Donald Conser.

A Thanksgiving program will be presented at the Nov. 18 meeting.

Ernest Raber conducted the juvenile meeting, when plans were made for a Thanksgiving party on Nov. 27 at the hall.

Members were requested to bring used greeting cards to the Nov. 18 meeting.

James Conser was reported ill. The program included: Roll Call, "the meaning of Nov. 11"; riddles, Wendy Conser; jokes, Paul Bloor; readings, Jean Wood and Cindy Whinery.

Program Is Enjoyed By Goshen Grangers

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fletcher were accepted as new members of Goshen Grange Tuesday night.

Master Richard Bryan conducted the meeting when a letter was read from the Beloit Ruritan Club inviting Goshen Towns hi p farmers to attend their Nov. 11 meeting at Smith Grange Hall. Dr. P. S. Whiteleather of Minerva will be guest speaker.

The charter was draped in memory of L. D. Berry.

An outdoor gym set was presented to the grange by the juvenile members.

Mrs. Ray Starbuck was in charge of the program which included: A poem, "Autumn" by Karen Hrvatin; fall pictures shown by Mrs. Starbuck; and a cake walk, won by Connie McAfee. Mrs. Roland Chaffee received the special prize.

Lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hively.

Ray Beck will report on State Grange at the Nov. 17 meeting.

Ohio's Weather Outlook Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Mild weather continued over Ohio Wednesday, with afternoon temperatures ranging from 63 at Toledo and Cleveland to 79 at Chesapeake.

Moderate to heavy rains fell, with amounts over an inch at Dayton, Toledo and Columbus.

Overnight temperatures were mostly in the 50s.

The mild weather will come to an abrupt halt tonight as a cold front which was in Illinois this morning moves into Ohio. Winds will shift to northerly, ending the rain but bringing the chance of snow flurries to the northern counties.

Temperatures on Friday will average about 30 degrees lower and will be mostly in the 30s. Even lower temperatures are forecast for Friday night.

Every Day — more people are awakening to KRESGE values!

(Although this is addressed to Chevrolet owners, we'd be glad to have you read it, no matter what make you now own or plan to buy. It might well be as interesting and significant to you as to the Chevrolet owner.)

TO THE MORE THAN 16 MILLION PEOPLE WHO OWN CHEVROLET

The first and the latest—the 1912 and the 1960 Chevrolet. The progress represented here is the result of continuing efforts to make your new Chevrolet always more beautiful, more useful and more valuable in every respect.

You belong to the largest family of owners in the automotive world.

We hope you're proud of that. It must give you great satisfaction to know that your judgment in choosing Chevrolet has been confirmed by so many other people.

We know that we can hold your preference and your loyalty only by meeting our responsibilities to you fully and completely from the day you buy your Chevrolet to the day you trade it in. And so we'd like to talk with you about our responsibilities as we see them, and what we are doing to meet them.

Our first responsibility, we think, is clear: To design and build products that satisfy your needs and your wants to the highest possible degree. To that end, we have done these things for 1960:

Made the 1960 Chevrolet more economical, roomier, more quiet and comfortable, easier to handle and maneuver. Introduced the compact and revolutionary Corvair. Produced a new line of Chevrolet trucks with unprecedented advances in efficiency, cargo handling, driver comfort and ability to get a job done.

But it isn't enough to design and build the kinds of products you want. They must be built right. Solidly. Carefully.

Let us assure you of this: Chevrolet's fine reputation as a solid, well-built, dependable product is being safeguarded by more checks and inspections and tests, than ever before.

Along with your Chevrolet dealer, we want you to have available the finest and most complete service facilities. That is why we: Conduct training schools for Chevrolet dealer mechanics. Study and recommend improved service equipment and techniques. Maintain the industry's most complete parts warehouse system.

Finally, neither Chevrolet nor your Chevrolet dealer has any intention of forgetting you after you buy. To help keep you happy with your Chevrolet, we have established a department new to us and so far as we know, new to the automobile industry. This is the Chevrolet Department of Owner Relations, whose only job is the coordination of Chevrolet and Chevrolet dealer activities so that you enjoy utmost satisfaction during your entire period of ownership. Through this department, and through all the other extraordinary steps we are taking, Chevrolet and your Chevrolet dealer hope to keep you a happy member of the Chevrolet owner family.

Bruce May Uncork 'Nothing New' At East Liverpool

Strategy For Game Secret

Mackall Still Man For Salem to Stop

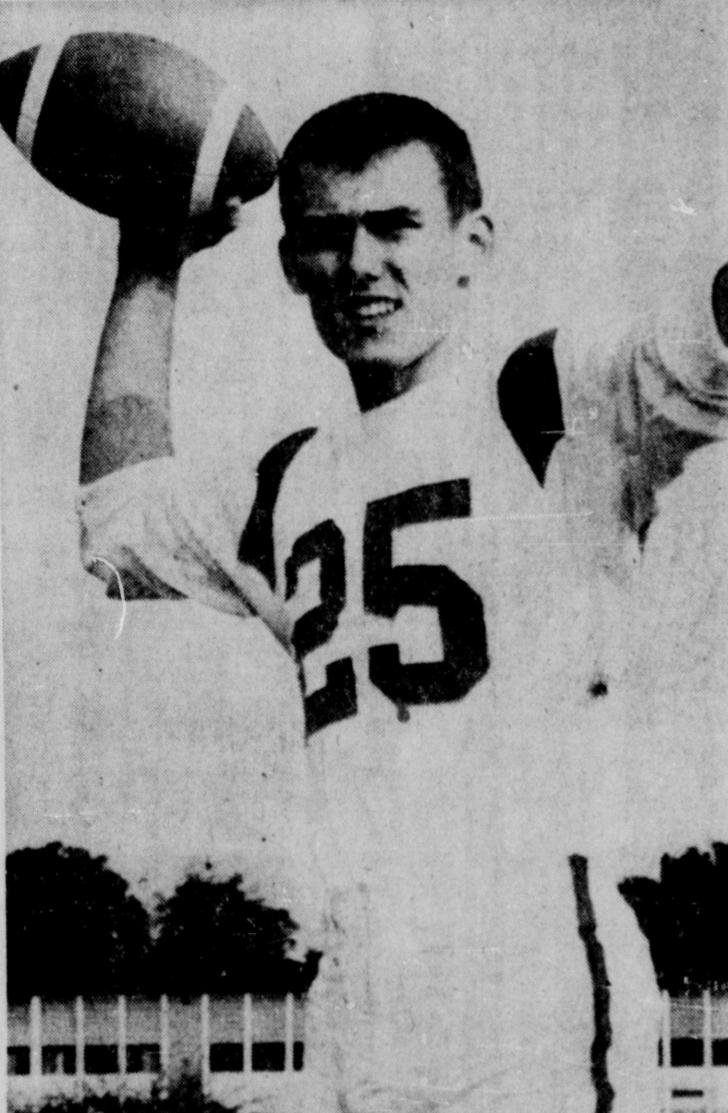

Salem High's master psychologist-strategist, Coach Earle Bruce, said yesterday that he is planning "nothing new" for the big game at East Liverpool this week, but come Friday night he is likely to apply a liberal interpretation to those words.

If his crew hasn't practiced anything new behind the closed gates of Reilly Stadium this week, this in itself will be a surprise to the Potters. There are still many people who aren't convinced that the Quakers weren't holding back a little the last two weeks in the games with Wellsville and Boardman.

The sudden shift from the frequently successful short quick pass-

23-18-2 edge over Salem in their long series which dates back to 1911, the Quakers have won the last two games and four out of the last six.

The Quakers will have a small overall weight advantage Friday. The lines will be about even at 176 pounds per man. Salem will be bigger but slower in the backfield.

Bruce "Big Mama" Reynolds of East Liverpool will be the biggest in the starting lineup. The husky tackle weighs 240 pounds and has specialized in recovering opponents' fumbles.

Salem enters the game ranked 23rd in the state in the AP poll. East Liverpool is the number six club. It's not likely that there is that much difference between the two teams.

"I said a year ago that if it wasn't stopped someone was going to get hurt and hurt badly. Well, I hate to say it, but I told you so."

University of California officials have charged McKeever, a guard for University of Southern California, with deliberate roughness. California halfback Steve Bates suffered a shattered cheekbone broken nose during the game Saturday at Berkeley, allegedly inflicted by McKeever's elbow.

Speaking of California coach Pete Elliott, Hayes said:

"A coach can't keep his mouth shut when he sees a boy's face beaten to a pulp. Whatever Pete says is good enough for me to believe. He's an honorable man."

Hayes concluded with "I still say this is the thing which can kill college football."

The Ohio mentor gave no signal there had been any "rough stuff" in this year's OSU-USC game.

Springfield Tops Providence 7-4

By The Associated Press
The big lead the Providence Reds built at the start of the American Hockey League season is down to two points after the Springfield Indians whipped the Reds in their first clash of the 1959-60 campaign.

The Indians won 7-4 at Providence Wednesday night. Cleveland beat Hershey 5-3 in the league's other game.

Providence now has lost its last three starts. The victory boosted Springfield into undisputed possession of second place.

Cleveland's power plays worked effectively against Hershey. Mike Labadie tallied the first Barons' goal unassisted. The others came at the end of power plays off the sticks of Bill Dineen, Ed Hoekstra, Fred Glover and Cal Stearns.

The player the Royals will give up will be agreed upon later.

Reed, 6-9, is a former Oklahoma City University star in his second pro year. Last season he scored 325 points for the Hawks in 65 games.

LSU Allows Just 3 Field Goals

Bayou Bengals Replace Elis As Least Scored on Gridders

By The Associated Press
Undefeated Louisiana State, the nation's No. 1 college football team, has replaced Yale as the least scored against major eleven this season.

The Bayou Tigers, along with unbeaten fourth-ranked Syracuse, have a monopoly on most of the major college defense honors, according to NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today.

LSU, with the longest winning streak (19) in major football, is the only team that has denied its opponents a touchdown. Only nine points—three field goals—have been scored against the Tigers in seven games.

Overall defense honors, however, went to Syracuse, which has permitted less than a yard per play by rushing (134 in 166 tries) and twice in six games has held its opponents to minus yardage on the ground.

Opponents have been able to gain only 575 yards both in the air and on the ground against Syracuse. That's an average of only 95.8 yards per game. LSU is second with a 143.6 average.

Alabama leads in forward pass defense, permitting only 26 completions in 56 attempts for 301 yards against it. Mississippi is second with 374 yards. Alabama is one of five teams that still has not given up a touchdown by passing. The others are LSU, Florida, Purdue and North Texas State.

Arizona State holds the punting leadership for the fifth straight week with an average of 46.5. Grigham Young is second with 43.0.

The Air Force leads in recovered fumbles by the opposition. In six games, the Falcons have pounced on 17 rival miscues, giving up only four themselves. No team in major circles has lost fewer fumbles and only Arkansas with 22, and Texas with 19, have recovered more opponents' fumbles. Arkansas and Texas have played seven games each.

Giardello

Dumps Tiger

Joey Is Given Unanimous Win

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — It would seem that the only unanimous agreement on the outcome of a bout between middleweights Joey Giardello and Dick Tiger is reached by the three officials who score the scrap.

The 29-year-old Giardello won a unanimous decision in Wednesday night's 10-round at the arena, and 2,782 paying customers booted lustily at the announcement.

Five weeks ago in Chicago Tiger won a unanimous decision in the pair's first 10-round, and that verdict also brought hoots.

Giardello, former Philadelphian fighting out of Rosedale, N. Y., thought he won the fight in Chicago.

And Tiger, British Empire middleweight champion from Nigeria and Liverpool, England, was equally confident he won Wednesday night.

So close was the scoring that the referee, Don Gonzales, and a judge, Charles Bill, would have had it 45-45 on points if Gonzales had not penalized Tiger a point for butting in the ninth round.

Judge Herb Williams had it 47-45 for Giardello.

Giardello built up an edge in points in the first three rather tame rounds, and then came a furious fourth with each fighter landing a number of solid blows. At 161, Tiger weighed in a pound heavier than Giardello and entered the bout a 7-5 favorite.

Cleveland — Joey Giardello, 160, Rosedale, N. Y., outpointed Dick Tiger, 161, Liverpool, England, 10.

3-Way Tie for Second

Irishman Is Leading Britain's Team In Ryder Cup Tourney

international golf matches which start Friday.

And while the Irishman came in first, a Welsh teammate, Dave Thomas, shared a three-way tie for second with two Americans — Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., and Art Wall Jr. of Pocono Manor, Pa. All had 69.

Julius Boros of Midpines, N. C., and Cary Middlecoff of Hollywood, Fla., were next with 70s.

The British have never won the Ryder Cup on American soil. But there has been a considerable stiffening of upper lips since 1957, when the Britons broke a 24-year interval between victories by defeating the Yanks 7½ - 4½ at Sheffield, England.

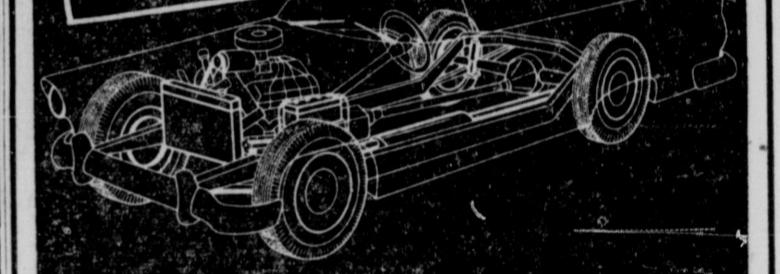

O'Connor, a two-time Ryder Cup team member, collected six birdies and slipped over par on four holes, twice by overshooting the greens.

British Capt. Dai Rees said the husky Irishman was at the top of his game and playing better than anyone else on the team.

Cubs' Banks Is National League Most Valuable Player

NL Star Set Many Records

Shortstop Picked 2nd Straight Year

CHICAGO (AP)—Being named the National League's most valuable player for an unprecedented second year came as a real surprise to Ernie Banks.

"Any of a halfdozen or so other fellows I thought would beat me out," said the wiry, 28-year-old Chicago Cub shortstop.

"There were a lot of good players in the league this season—fellow like Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews and Lew Burdette of the Braves, Sam Jones and Willie Mays of the Giants and Charley Neal and Wally Moon of the Dodgers."

"And they were all on pennant contenders, too. That usually weighs in their favor."

"All I can say is that it's wonderful and unexpected news—a thrill and an honor, but hard to believe."

"Every player looks forward to two things—winning the most valuable award and playing on a championship team. I'm looking ahead to a world championship at Wrigley Field next year and I definitely think we can do it. If our young pitching jells and we get the breaks, we could be in."

A year ago when Banks won the award, he implied that it was a good talking point for a raise. He got it. This time he was signed before the award was announced.

He still got a reported $10,000 increase, boosting him to an estimated $60,000 for 1960.

The springy-wristed Banks, becoming the first National League player to win the honor in successive years, batted .304 and had these other accomplishments for 1959 with the fifth place Cubs:

Established a new high fielding percentage of .985 committing only 12 errors, fewest of any shortstop who ever played a full season in the majors.

Led both leagues in runs batted in with 143, highest in the National League since Joe Medwick totaled 154 in 1937.

Hit 45 homers. It tied him for the lead with Mathews, but the Milwaukee third baseman hit one in the playoff series to take home honors.

Rangers Defeated by Leafs 4 to 1

By The Associated Press
Put those Toronto Maple Leafs on home ice and they're a tough club to handle in the National Hockey League.

The Leafs ran their unbeaten streak at home to six games Wednesday night—and they wasted little time letting the New York Rangers know who was boss. The game was only 13 seconds old when George Armstrong fired in Toronto's first goal. Less than four minutes later, Bert Olmstead clicked and the Leafs had a 2-0 lead.

That was enough, but just to be sure Armstrong scored again and Al Stanley got his first of the season and second in two years and the Leafs wound up with a 4-1 victory.

Kent Limping to Michigan for Game

It will be a bruised and battered Kent State University football team that takes on Western Michigan Saturday at Kalamazoo.

Kent State coach Trevor Rees said that four of his starting team may see only limited action against the Broncos because of injuries suffered in last week's Toledo game.

The four missed most of the practice drills this week.

They are quarterback Dick Mostardo, fullback Chuck Naso and ends Fred Rothfuss and Frank Mancini. Mostardo, Mancini and Naso all have leg injuries while Rothfuss has an injured shoulder.

Second string quarterback John Schuster of Campbell is expected to see a lot of action Saturday. Schuster, the team's finest passer, was praised by Rees for a fine effort against Toledo.

Adding to Rees' woes was the announcement that John Henry Martin of Wellsville, the team's leading ball carrier, will be lost for the season.

It was thought at first that Martin's injury, which he suffered in the Bowling Green game, was not serious. Doctors said, however, that a bone separation on his right knee would keep Martin sidelined for the rest of the fall.

MIDDLECOFF NAMED

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Cary Middlecoff is the new golf pro at the nearby La Quinta course, expected to open in a few weeks. The two-time National Open champion will be at the new course for four months a year, starting in January.

ON COLTS STAFF

BALTIMORE (AP) — William P. (Cy) Morgan, connected with the Philadelphia Phillies baseball organization for the past 20 seasons, today was named to the Baltimore Orioles scouting staff. Morgan will cover part of Pennsylvania and New Jersey in the search for young player talent.

OSU FORFIT

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's football squad plowed through simulated Indiana defense formations here Wednesday in a drill session. The Buckeyes meet the Hoosiers here Saturday.

Penguins Facing Connecticut Team

YOUNGSTOWN — Youngstown University's football team hopes to crack a two-game losing streak this weekend, but it will be a tough task since the opponents are undefeated Southern Connecticut.

Listed in the press books and the 1959 schedules as "New Haven State College," the school changed to Southern Connecticut State College just prior to the start of the season.

Thus far this year the Owls have run roughshod over their opponents, tallying 246 points in six games. Biggest rout was a 60-6 game last week with Quonset Naval Air Station.

Coach Jess Dow's boys have a six game win streak this season and have won 13 over a two year span.

On the bright side for the Penguins this week is the expected full time services of fullback Ralph Morelli. "Butch" has been sidelined since early in the B-W game and missed the OU and Buffalo games. Trainer Willard L. Webster reports that Morelli should be ready for action but that first team tackle Joe Smargiasso will not dress for the game.

Youngstown now has a 4-3 record with games with Toledo and Akron remaining on the schedule. The Akron game, postponed earlier has been re-set for Nov. 21 at Akron.

Lenoir Rhyne Takes Lead In NAIA Poll

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Lenoir Rhyne of North Carolina, with a 6-0 record, took over first place in the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics football rankings this week.

The previous leader, Lamar Tech of Beaumont, Tex., dropped to seventh place after its first loss of the season, 14-12 to Howard Payne College. Lamar has won seven.

Joe Campbell, a touring golf professional, formerly played basketball for Purdue.

Police Keep Watch On Summit Jail

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Police are keeping a close watch on Summit County jail and 17 prisoners who refuse to eat.

What caused the inmates to go on a hunger strike was a mystery.

Sheriff Russell Bird said he had anticipated trouble and guards with riot guns had been posted on the jail grounds in the past few days. He could not explain what prompted the hunger strike.

At first, 32 of the 148 inmates refused to eat, but 15 prisoners changed their minds and received the evening meal.

The 17 rebels were confined in the same cell block and kept under close guard.

Said Sheriff Bird:

"It's all right with me. If they don't want to eat, we'll save the taxpayers some money."

Until the trouble ends, said Deputy Capt. Paul Cox, all 148 prisoners will be denied privileges.

"They generally understood and had no further complaints," he said.

Missing Priest Is Discovered In Arizona Town

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—David P. Meyer, a Roman Catholic priest who disappeared from Hawaii eight months ago, has turned up in Phoenix, married and working for the state.

Meyer, 28, former assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Church at Wailuku, Maui, Hawaii, was found Wednesday working as a $322-a-month interviewer for the Arizona Employment Security Commission.

Meyer disappeared March 4. His car was found on a Maui Beach the same day and an air and sea search was launched. Then, on March 10, a Requiem Mass was sung for the priest at St. Anthony's.

That was the same day Meyer wed his former parish secretary, Rofina Ann Lynch, 35, in Los Angeles.

Meyer and his wife declined comment on their recent activities.

Mrs. Meyer, a mother of four children, was divorced from her husband, Boyce Lynch, five years ago.

NIXON BUYS TIES

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When it comes to buying neckties for himself, Vice President Richard M. Nixon exercises a veto power over his wife.

"Too shiny for television," he said Wednesday after examining several ties his wife picked for him in a Beverly Hills shop. He rejected most of them but finally bought six for $54.60.

Miami Relieved of $3 Million Headache

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The City of Miami has been relieved of a three million dollar headache by the Florida Supreme Court.

The court held Wednesday the city won't have to refund that amount to 240,000 traffic violators for fines and costs illegally assessed by the Municipal Traffic Court.

The court agreed with Circuit Judge Robert Anderson that the city traffic court had no jurisdiction over traffic cases after the countywide metropolitan traffic ordinance went into effect March 1, 1958.

But it said Anderson was wrong in holding that the 240,000 violators who had paid fines or forfeited bonds to the city court were entitled to recover their money.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

They play rough here. There's evidence of violence etched into the records of county prosecutors in and around this city—and on the head and nerves of one contractor who took a skull-cracking beating for defying the Hod Carriers Union. I give you this case because many labor leaders are saying the new Reporting and Disclosure law was passed to punish labor and not to reform some of it.

If labor leaders back East want to know why tens of thousands of letters backing passage of a reform bill poured in on the Congress, let them talk to Angelo LaPuzza. Until 8:30 a.m., June 9, 1955, LaPuzza was a healthy, vigorous local masonry contractor.

A few minutes later he was a bloodied mess. He had been hit on the head. The whole side of his face was caved in. Diagnosis revealed a severe concussion of the brain, a fractured skull, multiple fractures of the left cheek, an injured eye and a loss of feeling on the left side of his face.

Part of the cheek bone had to be removed, as was part of the fifth sensory nerve.

TREATMENT required surgery, traction and recurring hospitalization—all very tough on a 39-year-old fellow who had learned a trade, saved some money and become a small masonry contractor.

LaPuzza sued officials of Local 114 of the Hod Carriers for $20,000 for the assault. A district court awarded him $75,000. The judge was satisfied on April 15, 1959.

This "picket line incident," as it has been described, escaped the attention of the public. But not the citizenry here. This, according to the court records, is what happened.

In the spring of '55, Angelo LaPuzza got a contract for an apartment project. Working with him were two other skilled masons. They were all union members. But they hired three helpers in the open market.

Soon an agent of Local 114 called on LaPuzza. The union official wanted the three helpers to sign up LaPuzza, carrying a card himself, said it was fine with him. If the helpers wanted to join the union, they could.

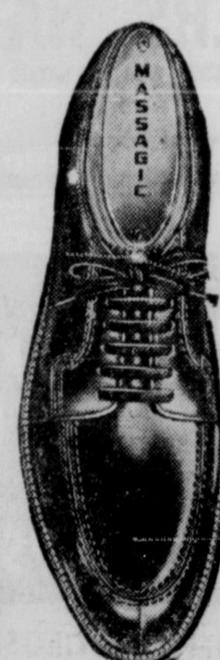

The business agent talked to the helpers. They weren't interested. The union official told LaPuzza to get them into the union. LaPuzza said something to the effect that union organizing was the union's business.

Later the union demanded that LaPuzza fire the helpers. The little contractor refused. Then came the June 9. LaPuzza arrived at the job. It was being picketed. The rooms!

Better Not to Have Loved At All?

Tale of the 3 Un-Wise QueensBy ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

PARIS — (NEA) — Three of the world's most famous glamour queens are finding out the hard way that all the world does not love a lover.

Elizabeth Taylor, Edith Piaf and Brigitte Bardot recently have felt the cold blast of censure over their much publicized affairs of the heart.

The trio is learning that there is nothing so fickle as the public; that even talented artists have to watch their step. To defy tradition too consistently finally boomerangs, even in the liberal world of today.

The marriage of "BB" to dashing Jacques Charrier not so long ago touched off many nasty comments.

"One more to add to her list of victims," some people said. "A fine example she sets the younger generation," was another comment heard in France.

Some days later Edith Piaf, completely recovered from two major operations in the U.S., landed at Orly Field here.

THE LITTLE "SPARROW"
(Piaf is argot for sparrow), dewy-eyed and holding the hand of a tall, athletic young American, announced:

"I want you to meet my 'new happiness,' Douglas Davis. He is a painter to whom I am much indebted. He has given me a new interest in life."

This happy state of affaire de coeur, too, was met only by acid and ironical comment. Over the past 15 years, Piaf has had many a bitter tear over the snide remark in print and the smirk in public which followed her love affairs.

Both Piaf and Bardot, in turn, are aware that at about the same time, Elizabeth Taylor was severely criticized for marrying Eddie Fisher so soon after the death of Mike Todd. They know that the beautiful "Liz" — yesterday day the world's sweetheart — was booed in the streets during her visit in Paris.

Not so long ago at Saint Tropez, Riviera playground of the younger generation, Brigitte was obliged to flee from the taunts and insults of a crowd which had gathered outside the terrace of a restaurant where she was dining.

BOTH SHE AND Edith Piaf are considered "insatiable" so far as their love lives are concerned. And, like most French women, both are resentful of public intrusion into their private lives.

"Why are people so hard on me?" she asked one of her intimates recently. "Other women fall in and out of love just as often as I do and nothing is ever said about those. Just because I am in the public eye, all my movements are dissected and commented upon."

"My private life is nobody's business!"

But the unkind comments which followed her marriage were an even greater surprise to her. It is beyond her understanding why people call her a man-eater.

EDITH PIAF'S STORY is similar. She, too, cannot understand why her public, who obviously are crazy about her singing, should be so upset by her private life.

Like Bardot, she apparently needs the constant presence of a man she loves. Unlike Bardot, the little sparrow never knew anything of the comfort and security of a middle-class background, let alone its moral standards.

Piaf and Bardot have one other trait in common. Both are generous, and if their public may look with disfavor upon their romantic escapades, at least their old loves remain tried and true friends, ready to comfort them when they feel lonely and frightened.

PIAF: A 'new happiness.'

Goshen Club to Buy Playground Gear

At a recent meeting of the Goshen Center Community Club, the group agreed to spend $150 for outdoor playground equipment.

Members of the Goshen Center Mothers Club will be asked at their Nov. 20 meeting to contribute an equal amount for the project.

Present playground equipment is inadequate and badly in need of repairs, it was revealed.

Warren Wilson, chairman of the Community Club playground committee, reported that athletic supplies are being purchased.

Mrs. Cletus Bowman, representing the ways and means committee, stated that a money-making project will be started soon.

William Ingold, visual education and guidance director at Goshen Union School showed movies. The attendance trophy was won by the third grade taught by Mrs. Opal Kloetzly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heffner will serve on the hospitality committee for the Dec. 7 meeting.

A social hour completed the evening's activities and refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Reichart and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Weingart.

Shrimp Curry Recipe Comes From India

From faraway India comes a recipe for shrimp curry. Often culinary directions from India call for exotic and unobtainable ingredients. But not this recipe! It's practical for American kitchens, and utterly delicious.

Shrimp is back in good supply just in time for this curry. If you use the small or medium variety, add them as is. If you use very large shrimp you may wish to cut each one in half lengthwise.

Shrimp Curry

Ingredients: 1½ cups milk, 1 can (3½ ounces) flaked coconut, 1½ pounds shrimp (fresh or frozen), 5 tablespoons corn oil, 1 clove garlic (minced and crushed)

Elkton

The "Jolly Eight" club met with Mrs. Frank Sturgeon as their hostess Wednesday. Mrs. Ethel Strudhof, Mrs. Hazel Lee and Mrs. Thelma Ward were 500 prize winners.

Ms. Burrell Reeder entertained the "Bide-a-Wee" club and their husbands Thursday with a覆盖 dinner at the Lion's Cottage at Willow Grove Park in Lisbon. Wilbur Hennon of Sebring was a visitor Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Evans.

The Elkton School Teachers attended the East Central Ohio Teachers Association convention at Canton Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin are moving to North Lima this week.

Mrs. James Johnson Sr. of Newark visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Woodburn.

Miss Carolyn Daugherty returned to her home in Steubenville Sunday after spending four weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Harrold during the sickness of Mrs. Harrold.

Mrs. William Jones of Lisbon will entertain the CBF Club at her home Friday.

Owl Sandwiches

Ingredient: ½ cup flaked salmon, ¾ cup finely chopped ham, ¼ cup finely chopped celery, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper, 32 slices bread, 32 small stuffed olive slices, raisins, pimento strips.

Method: Mix salmon, eggs, celery, green pepper, lemon juice, mayonnaise, salt and pepper to taste.

Cut a 2½ - inch round and a 1¼-inch round from each slice of bread. Spread half of the large rounds with about 1 tablespoon filling and the small rounds with about 1 teaspoon filling.

Top spread rounds with remaining bread rounds of the same size. Assemble Hoot Owls on tray, using large rounds for the bodies and small rounds for the heads.

Use stuffed olive slices for eyes, raisins for ear tufts and buttons, and pimento strips for collars and ties. Makes 16.

Cheese Spinach

Ingredients: 1 package (10 ounces) chopped frozen spinach, 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, ¼ teaspoon salt, pepper, 4 slices bacon (crispy cooked and crumbled).

Method: Cook spinach according to package directions but omit salt; drain; return to saucepan.

Cut cream cheese in small squares and add to drained spinach with salt and pepper to taste; reheat gently, stirring to melt cheese; do not boil. Sprinkle bacon over top. Makes 3 rich servings.

Sweet Potatoes

Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound and 7 ounces) whole sweet potatoes packed in syrup, 1-3 cup firmly packed light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, ¾ cup orange juice, ¼ cup lemon juice, 1 teaspoon finely grated orange rind, 1 teaspoon finely grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine.

Method: Drain potatoes; turn into a heat-resistant glass pie plate 9½ by 1½ inches. In a saucepan (1 quart) stir together thoroughly the brown sugar and cornstarch; gradually add orange and lemon juice, stirring until smooth after each addition.

Stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened; stir in orange and lemon rind and butter; pour over sweet potatoes.

Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 15 to 20 minutes or until sauce is bubbly. Makes 6 servings.

Note: This can go into the oven during the time a ham is being glazed.

Dessert Is French Offspring

Certain dessert recipes catch on. A rule that has been making the rounds is the French mousse au chocolat. Rich as Croesus, it's a combination of eggs, chocolate and sugar with sometimes the addition of butter or whipped cream.

But Americans have a way of taking foreign recipes and adapting them. That's what has happened to mousse au chocolat. One cooks wants it sturdier than the original, another likes it balancer.

A spanking new addition to culinary shelves, "The General Foods Kitchen Cook Book" (Random House) has its own version of the dessert, adding gelatin and coffee.

Here's the recipe, as it is given in the cook book. One word of warning, influenced by our testing of this rule in our own kitchen: use large eggs or your dessert may not be high and elegant.

Cold Mocha Souffle

Ingredients: 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) gelatin, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup cold water, 1 package sweet cooking chocolate, 1 teaspoon instant coffee, 6 egg yolks, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar, 6 egg whites.

Method: First, butter a 1-quart casserole or souffle dish with straight sides. Then cut a strip of waxed or brown paper about 4 inches deep and long enough to encircle the dish with a slight overlap.

Tape the strip securely around outside rim of dish, letting the paper stand about 2 inches above the rim to form a collar. Brush inside of strip with oil or melted butter.

Sprinkle gelatin over cold water to soften. Melt chocolate over hot water. Add softened gelatin and instant coffee; dissolve over very low heat.

Combine egg yolks and sugar in top of double boiler and place over boiling water. (Water should not touch top section of double boiler.)

Beat constantly with an egg beater until egg yolks double in bulk and mixture begins to thicken. Add chocolate mixture gradually, beating constantly. Remove from boiling water.

DO-IT-YOURSELFER

RIVERTON, Wyo. (AP)—Rodger Mielke really took this do-it-yourself business seriously.

While in dental college Mielke earned a lot about working with gold and silver. So when he married Jackie Quine recently, he designed and made both the engagement ring and two wedding rings used in the ceremony.

Beat egg whites until stiff peaks will form; fold into egg-yolk mixture. Pour into a 1-quart casserole or souffle dish (prepared as directed).

Chill mixture until firm—about 3 hours. Loosen paper; peel away gently. To souffle with whipped cream, if desired. This makes 6 to 8 servings.

Editor's Note: The sweet cooking chocolate called for comes in $\frac{1}{4}$ -pound packages and has 18 squares (each $\frac{1}{4}$ inch) marked off; as you will notice, in this recipe the whole package is used.

Veal Dish Is Italian SpecialtyBy CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

Sometimes the same delicious dish pops up in two or more countries. Heaven knows where it really originated!

We first caught up with one of these dishes when a family from Switzerland gave us a recipe for a Swiss favorite — paper-thin slices of tender veal, first wrapped around slices of Swiss cheese and cooked ham, and then sauteed in butter.

After making a recent armchair tour of Italy—via a restaurant guide and cook books—we are convinced that this combination of veal, cheese and ham is a favorite with Italians.

VEAL CAVALLINI
Ingredients: 1 1/4 pounds (about)

veal cutlet, 1 lemon, 6 thin slices liverwurst, 6 thin slices mozzarella cheese, 1/4 pound thinly sliced pro-

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Eat those breakfast eggs! Two of them will supply about 25 percent of the essential daily nutrients for adults.

Serve a Burma-style appetizer! Chop cooked shrimp fine and mix with minced onion, lime juice and salt and pepper.

Leftover cooked rice in the house? Mix it with well-drained canned tomatoes, sprinkle with plenty of grated cheese and heat in the oven.

Do you ever mash an avocado, season it with salt, pepper, lemon juice and minced onion? Nice to serve with crisp corn chips as a before-dinner snack.

Glazed Fresh Apple COOKIES

Mrs. Jerome Hull, Canfield

1/2 cup shortening, 1 1-3 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon ground cloves, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 cup finely chopped unpeeled apple, 1 cup chopped raisins or currants, 1/4 cup apple juice.

Cream shortening, brown sugar, egg. Add sifted dry ingredients. Blend in apple juice. Add remaining flour mixture. Drop by teaspoons on greased baking sheet. Bake at 400 degrees for 10-12 minutes. Spread with vanilla glaze while cookies are hot.

Vanilla Glaze
1 1/2 cup sifted powdered sugar, 2 1/2 tablespoons apple juice, 1/8 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla 1 tablespoon butter.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

No saffron in the house when you are making a Spanish casserole of chicken and rice! Turmeric is widely available and will give rice a pretty yellow color and interesting flavor.

Canned chicken-noodle soup takes on extra-good flavor if you sprinkle it with minced chives just before serving.

Baked Alaska

Ingredients: 1 oblong cake layer (10 by 6 by 1 inch), 1 pint vanilla ice cream, 1 pint strawberry ice cream, 1 pint mint ice cream, 6 egg whites, 1/4 cup sugar.

Method: Line a 1-quart loaf pan (8 1/2 by 4 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches) with waxed paper or transparent plastic wrapping. Pack with layers of ice cream. Set in freezer to harden.

Turn out onto cake layer; peel off paper. Beat egg whites until stiff; add sugar slowly and continue beating until stiff and glossy.

Completely cover cake and ice cream with meringue—it should be about 1-inch thick. Freeze until meringue is firm; package in freezer wrapping; seal.

Store up to 1 week. To serve, preheat oven to 500 degrees. Unwrap Alaska, place on a board or a baking sheet lined with several thicknesses brown paper.

Bake 4 to 5 minutes or until delicately browned. Transfer to chilled serving plate and serve at once. Makes 8 servings.

APPLE PIE

Mrs. Ray Hendricks, RD 5, Salem. 5 cups sliced apples, 1-3 cup brown sugar, 2-3 cup white sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 cup water, 1 tablespoon butter.

Pastry

2 1/4 cup sifted flour, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 3/4 cup shortening, 1 beaten egg yolk, 1/4 cup milk.

Put sifted flour, sugar, salt into a bowl and 1/4 of shortening. Blend with a fork until consistency of cornmeal. Add remaining shortening.

Mix egg yolk and milk together and sprinkle over mixture tossing quickly with fork. Press with fingers to form dough. Divide dough in half and roll on slightly floured board. Bake 400 degrees for 10 minutes, or 375 degrees for 35 minutes.

A little sugar added to an apple-bread stuffing for duck helps bring out flavor.

You Wouldn't Want to Eat Such Corn

Al Madden, right, shows an ear of corn grown for smokers, not eaters. Called "pipe corn," it is grown for its long cob at the experimental nursery of the Missouri Farmers Assn. at Marshall. Mo. Cob can be used to make corn cob pipe bowls. Eugene Duncan, below, also at the experimental farm, looks over an ear of pod corn that's just about all husk. The entire ear is covered with husk and each kernel of the hybrid has its own husk. It's one of the oddities that turn up as agriculture researchers seek to evolve new strains of corn with built-in values to meet special purposes.

Glazed Fresh Apple COOKIES

THE MORNING AFTER

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Charles Shaw, curator of reptiles at San Diego Zoo, was called to the steamship President Van Buren to treat a lizard with a hangover.

During the trip from the Philippines the ship's crew had discovered that the lizard liked soda water. Then, somebody spiked the soda with whiskey. The lizard was being taken to a trade fair at Oakland, Calif.

These Are the Facts About Acne

Pimples often are the least of the acne sufferer's troubles. The girl or boy with this common trouble is assailed by misconceptions, falsehoods and recommendations of strong-arm treatments capable of scarring the skin or personality permanently.

Here is the true and false picture:

Falsehood: Acne is a disease of the unclean. It's your own fault if you get pimples.

Truth: Acne is caused by a temporary disturbance in the balance in the production of male and female sex hormones, both of which exist in boys and girls. You outgrow it.

Falsehood: Acne is an infection and you'd best treat it by injections of vaccine or vigorous use of skin antiseptics.

Truth: You can make a mess of your skin by overenthusiastic use of washes, lotions, creams or ointments. We doctors even have a name for this folly: "treatment dermatitis."

Falsehood: Acne is due to sexual abstinence and an early marriage would probably clear up the disturbance.

Truth: Nonsense.

Falsehood: Creams, tablets and injections containing female sex hormone will quickly clear up facial blemishes.

Truth: The use of hormones should ever be under the most careful observation by your doctor. Taking such preparations might produce irregularity in a girl's menstrual periods or cause abnormal growth of a boy's breast. Shun them.

Falsehood: Acne results from self-abuse, which shows in the offender's face.

Truth: Nothing of the kind. Unjust criticism of the boy or girl who suffers from acne may produce deep personality changes, sometimes with permanent after-effects. If my reader is young I urge him to rest assured that the
